Your Mobile Library Service

Torfaen has two mobile libraries which visit communities throughout the borough, providing access to entertainment and information for children and adults.

It's free to join the library and membership is open to everyone regardless of age.

Our mobile libraries visit streets and communities near to you. Check the timetables for details. Most of our stops are open to everyone so come on board and see what's on offer.

Some stops are for particular organisations like schools or residential homes, where children or vulnerable adults need a dedicated stop. You can see where these are set out below.

We loan books, DVDs, and music CDs. There are plenty of books for children of all ages. There are board books for the very young. We also have a range of fiction for teenagers. We loan talking books for those who enjoy listening to their "read" and if you prefer large print books we have those too.

There is easy access on board via a lift for anyone with mobility problems. Library staff are happy to help.

It's your service so, if you haven't tried it before, why not use it? And if you have any ideas or suggestions for improvements, do let us know.

You can contact us by completing a Comments form or by e-mailing us at Cwmbran.library@torfaen.gov.uk

This leaflet is valid from May 2010 until further notice.
