Please tell us the best thing for you about using this library

I like coming to the library because I can rent books and films.

The best thing about it is getting to read books from authors you didn't even thought existed! It also helps me to learn to read a lot better. When I get a book out and read every night and it's enjoyable and relaxing, I hope this library stays the same!!

Me and my brothers and sister always come here, as my mum loves to read too- I would be really sad if it ever goes.

There is a large variety of books available, the computers have free access and the librarians are very helpful.

I like the encyclopaedias.

Using the computers is good because you can message your freinds but you only have a short time.

Using the computers and having a wide range of different kind of books.

The best thing about the library here is many decent working computers and a wide range of authors covered. It is easier to find the type of book here than most places too. The magna section is quite good too. Picture of a cat.

Scary teenage books: sadly no talking books. Picture of a sad face.

Natural disaster books. Childeren reading books.

The best thing is it always has the book I would like. Picture of a person (speech bubble looking for Minecraft Books) and a stack of library shelves from the letter M to P, highlighting the Minecraft Section. Picture of the book "Midnight" by Jacqueline Wilson, together with a picture of her. This book is very eneteraining and so is all her other books.

The best thing is that you get sit down and read any book you want and it's really quiet so you can concentrate. Also the staff are very helpful. I used to hate reading until I found lots of books here that I love. Picture of book "Puppy Love" and a big Thank You message.

The library has a wide range of books and authors that are enjoyable to read and educational.

I like reading books.

You can find information. It is very useful for school topics. Helps you learn and read. Some books are funny and enjoyable also they have good poems. They have computers that sometimes children and adults can use them. This library is very useful and has lovely staff. From Lowri In large capitals - I LOVE BOOKS! Pictures of a table and chairs, a girila and a library stak of books, with the word INFORMATION in capitals above it.

I enjoy reading books, it's even better you can get them for free at Cwmbran Library. Large print - Jacqueline Wilson illustrated by Emily Lewis Picture of the book cover of "THE BUTTERFLY CLUB" with a butterfly resting on a girl's finger and two other butterflies in flight.

Lots of enjoyable books to read, and it's also very (underlined) handy when I have to do homework! I can lear things that I didn't know before. There are a great range of books to read and help me with my homework.

It helps you learn and it has lots of books.
